"An enthusiastic and dynamic trainer". Susan has a passion for helping Early Years Professionals understand and to be proactive in their roles of safeguarding children. I attend her courses on an annual basis as I know I will go away with fresh ideas on how to support children, their families and staff. Susan is an extremely popular trainer whose courses are usually oversubscribed.

Kim Esnard - Child Minder & Trainer

We know that safeguarding children must be at the heart of everything we do, yet keeping abreast of the changing child protection landscape can be a challenge.

The implementation of 'Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018', 'Keeping Children Safe in Education 2018' and Ofsted's 'Inspecting Safeguarding in Early Years, Education and Skills Settings 2018' as well as the launch of local and national safeguarding children initiatives means that you probably need to update your safeguarding children knowledge.

Just like all the early years providers, Childminders are expected to be clear about what safeguarding means in practice and provide evidence of how you create and sustain a culture of vigilance where children's welfare is actively promoted.

Come along to the session to find out more about

- Statutory guidance and local updates
- How to evidence successful signs of safeguarding
- New and emerging child protection risks
- The future focus of Ofsted inspections

The course costs £45 per delegate.

Each delegate will receive a comprehensive handout and certificate.
